7th International Congress of Foot & Ankle Minimally Invasive Surgery

November 20-22, 2025
Barcelona, Spain

WELCOME ADDRESS

Welcome to the 7th International Congress of Foot & Ankle Minimally Invasive Surgery 2025!

We are delighted to invite you to join us in the vibrant city of Barcelona from November 20th to 22nd 2025, for this prestigious event. This congress promises to be a remarkable gathering of leading experts, practitioners, and researchers in the field of minimally invasive surgery for the foot and ankle.

Over the course of the congress, you will have the opportunity to attend insightful presentations, participate in hands-on workshops, and engage in thought-provoking discussions. Our comprehensive program is designed to showcase the latest advancements, techniques, and research in minimally invasive foot and ankle surgery.

Barcelona, with its rich cultural heritage and modern amenities, provides the perfect backdrop for this congress. We encourage you to explore the city's stunning architecture, world-class cuisine, and vibrant atmosphere during your stay.

We look forward to welcoming you to an unforgettable experience at the 7th International Congress of Foot & Ankle Minimally Invasive Surgery 2025.

Best regards,

TRAVEL TO BARCELONA

By plane, car or train... even by boat! You can get to Barcelona by any means of transport. Here's some information about all the available options to help you decide which type of transport suits you best. On your arrival, if you want to get around without your luggage, Bags & Go will collect, store and deliver your luggage wherever you want. Forget about your luggage and enjoy the city with complete freedom.

Plane

Barcelona airport, with several terminals, is located 16 kilometres south of the city and is also known as Josep Tarradellas Barcelona-El Prat. Barcelona can also be reached by transport links from other regional airports, including Girona, Reus and Lleida-Alguaire.

See More

Train

The train is one of the most environmentally friendly means of transport. High-speed trains are a comfortable and convenient way of covering long distances and Barcelona operates a number of high-speed rail routes that connect the city with the rest of Spain and France. The city also has an extensive network of suburban and regional trains.

See More

Car

Barcelona is well connected and has a large amount of car parks. The motorway and road network will take you anywhere in the city by car although it's worth bearing in mind that traffic can be heavy at the main entry points of Barcelona during rush hour.

See More

Bus

The bus station in Barcelona that has the most national and international connections is Barcelona Nord Bus Station. Buses also depart from Barcelona Sants station and other areas of the city.

See More

Boat

Barcelona has become the Mediterranean's foremost cruise ship harbour. It has nine passenger terminals, seven for cruise liners and four for ferries. It has connections with the Balearic Islands and the main Mediterranean harbours.

GETTING AROUND THE CITY

Mobility in Barcelona and its metropolitan area is effortless, thanks to the sustainable public transport network that makes getting around Barcelona a breeze. The best way to travel around Barcelona is by utilizing the efficient metro, trams, buses, and the Catalan government's city and suburban rail service (FGC), all prioritizing clean energy. Additionally, public transport in Barcelona includes a public bike hire scheme with over 200 km of bike lanes, ensuring an eco-friendly experience. How to get around Barcelona is further simplified by the fleet of taxis, featuring hybrid, electric, and natural gas vehicles. Environmentally friendly electric vehicles are also available for hire, ensuring you find the means of transport that best suits your needs.

Metro, FGC and Tram

Public transport such as the metro, tram and FGC are the quickest, simplest, most convenient and most sustainable way of getting around Barcelona. You can choose from the different ticket types and travel cards.

See More

Bus

A fleet of over 1,000 fully adapted buses serve all areas of Barcelona. The integrated fare system means that travel cards can be used on the metro, trams, FGC and Renfe trains (zone 1)

See More

Getting around by taxi

There are more than 10,000 taxis in the city which can be easily identified by their yellow and black livery. There are more than 300 bus stops in Barcelona and its metropolitan area providing convenient access to this service. A green light on the taxi roof indicates its availability.

See More

Park your car

Forget about your car and park it in one of our safe and convenient car parks. Public transport is the best, and most sustainable, way to get around Barcelona.

See More

Getting around on unique means of transport

Barcelona has unique means of transport that will enable you to get around the city in a fun way on land, sea and in the air. You can discover the city on the Barcelona Bus Turístic, sail along the seafront on one of the Golondrinas pleasure boats, and ride up to the castle on the Montjuïc cable car.
