

3rd International Symposium on The Acoustics of Ancient Theatres

Cartagena, Spain

October 25–28, 2026

Sponsorship Proposal

About the Symposium

From October 25th to 28th, 2026, the beautiful Mediterranean city of Cartagena, Spain, will host SAAT 2026, the 3rd International Symposium on the Acoustics of Ancient Theatres.

This event, endorsed by the EAA European Acoustics Association, is organized by the Sociedad Española de Acústica SEA, with the collaboration of the Acustica AIA and the Hellenic Institute of Acoustics HELINA.

Cartagena, Spain

SAAT is an established international symposium dedicated to the study of acoustics in ancient and historical performance spaces. It fosters interdisciplinary exchange across acoustics, architecture, archaeology, cultural heritage, and performance studies, with a particular focus on understanding, reconstructing, and preserving historical sound environments.

SAAT 2026 will bring together an international community of researchers, professionals, and experts, and will feature keynote lectures, contributed presentations, and opportunities for discussion and collaboration.

Conference chairs

- Mélanie Nolan - EAA
- Antonio Pedrero - SEA
- Patrizio Fausti - AIA
- George Kalliris - HELINA

Keynote speakers

- Sebastián R. Asensio - University of Murcia, Spain
- John Mourjopoulos - University of Patras, Greece
- Angela Bellia - University of Palermo, Italy
- Michael Vorländer - RWTH Aachen, Germany

Sponsoring SAAT 2026

Participation as a sponsor of SAAT 2026 represents a valuable opportunity to support the advancement of acoustics in ancient theatres and historical spaces, while gaining visibility within a highly specialized international community. Sponsorship contributions are essential to the successful organization of this event, and make a high-quality scientific and professional program possible. At the same time, they foster direct interaction between companies, researchers, and practitioners in a professional yet welcoming environment. The symposium also provides a unique platform to showcase products, services, and expertise to a targeted audience. In the following pages, the available sponsorship opportunities and participation options are outlined in detail. We hope they will be of interest and encourage you to take part in this event in a way that best suits your organization.

We hope to see you in Cartagena!
