

Dolores Hernandez

Dolores Hernandez, MD, PhD Hematologist, with more than 20 years of experience in stem cell transplantation (SCT) and transfusion medicine.

Current position at the Organización Nacional de Trasplantes (ONT), national competent authority for organs, tissues and cells. At ONT, I coordinate the national SCT (bone marrow and cord blood) programs and tissue transplant programs.

Active member of the Spanish delegation of the Ministry of Health for the development the new SoHO Regulation which will replace the rules for safety and quality set out in two Directives (2002/98/EC, for blood and blood components, and 2004/23/EC, for tissues and cells), and their implementing acts. The Regulation, already formally adopted by the EU Parliament and the Council will apply in 2027 and will replace the rules for safety and quality set out in two Directives (2002/98/EC, for blood and blood components, and 2004/23/EC, for tissues and cells), and their implementing acts.